

From: norybee@spice.cc.utexas.edu@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/20/01 3:18pm
Subject: Agreement way too soft...

This is a joke. Clearly the Justice Department (at least under our big-business friendly president) isn't taking Microsoft seriously.

The failure to zealously pursue an injunction against the release of Windows XP (which only serves to expand Microsoft's monopoly by integrating additional features, forcing competeing products out of the market) is ridiculous.

DOJ must pursue stronger penalties against Microsoft than what the agreement currently provides for.

Byron Barry
906 Hermitage Dr
Austin, TX
78753-5716